

Free Presentations on the Impact of Family Law Amendments in Nova Scotia funded by Justice Canada

The Access to Justice & Law Reform Institute is offering free one-hour webinars for legal professionals on recent case law updates around family violence in the wake of amendments to the Divorce Act and Parenting and Support Act. This presentation has been made possible by Justice Canada.

The presentation will cover the following topics:

- A brief overview of recent family law amendments and concurrence between the Divorce Act and Parenting and Support Act
- Case law updates in Nova Scotia and beyond: How are the courts interpreting these changes?
- Focus on evidence of family violence and impact on children
- Further resources and community referrals

To register, please select your preferred date below or email emily@lawreform.ns.ca indicating the date and time you wish to attend. Presentations will take place via Zoom on the following dates:

- Wednesday, March 8th: 5:30-6:30
- Thursday, March 23rd: 12:00-1:00
- Tuesday, April 11th: 12:00-1:00
- Wednesday, April 19th: 12:00-1:00
- Wednesday, April 26th: 5:30-6:30

If you cannot attend any of the listed dates or would like to arrange another date or time for your firm or organization, please contact Emily Tallon at emily@lawreform.ns.ca to schedule a presentation.